My Way Of Saying Thanks

Looking back to the past I remember the challenges that I came across, knowing that not once my mother wouldn't be there for me helping to accomplish and reach my goals. The backbone that was strong to help me carry on. Well, now that I high reached that high peek in my life, I would like to say thank you for giving me life.

Love Dee

Chidiebere Nwosu

To My Daughter Tadayah,
You have achieved more in life than I have ever imagined or dreamt of. I am very proud of you. You have a good gift and a great mind.

Congratulation!

Tadayah Pulliam

I would like to thank everyone who has made an impact in my life and helped me get to where I am today. I would like to give thanks to my mother...without her I wouldn't be here. Thank you to Mrs. Johnson, my 6th grade teacher; Ms. Thompson, my god mother Ms. Strickland, Kadeidra my best friend forever, and last but not least, Jehovah God. These are the important people in my life that helped me grow into the independent, successful woman I am today, each in their own unique way.

Thank You!

Principal's Message

Dear Class of 2002
Congratulations!

It is already tomorrow and you have another milestone in your journey through life by graduating from TCC.

You are the first four-year class to graduate during my tenure as Principal of TCC. Your class also graduates our first group of Academy students. Throughout your high school career, you have been challenged and met those challenges with strength and courage.

Nelson Mandella, former President of South Africa, stated in his inauguaral address:
"...It is our light, not our darkness that frightens us. We ask ourselves, who are we to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented and fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be?..."

This is your challenge. Never accept mediocrity. Dare to set goals and work to achieve them. Make today the day that you choose to change your life forever.
Reach for your goals.

It is our hope that you will cherish your time at TCC and forever let your experiences at TCC be the light that guides you in your future endeavors..

Continued success,

Eli S. Noble, Jr. Ed. D
Principal
